LARGE CONTRACT.

The Washington Country Club, Dr. J. Tabor Johnson, president; Mr. Frank Upman, of Harding & Upman, architects, secretary, at a meeting of the board of directors yesterday, approved the plans and specifications, prepared by Harding & Upman architects of Washington, and adopted by the building committee composed of Messrs. Johnson, Upman, Yates, Davis, General Rixey, Mr. Patterson and others, and awarded the erection of same to Mr. J. D. Knight, a prominent young contractor of this city. The clubhouse, to cost about $18,000, is to be one of the finest buildings of its kind in Virginia and is to be on a very prominent hill at Jewel, on the Great Falls and Old Dominion electric car line where the club has its golf links located. Mr. Knight has a force of men at the location yesterday, and while the contract was being discussed and signed ground was being broken, as the club is anxious to become domiciled in their new home at the earliest moment possible. This is the second contract in the county that Mr. Knight has started within the past thirty days; the other being the Masonic Temple, at Clarendon, on the Falls Church line.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.

Mr. George Strader, of Fairfax county, who was injured on Saturday, the 24th ultimo, by a collision between a team and an electric train on King street, near West, died at the Alexandria Hospital last night. The deceased, it will be remembered, at the time of the accident had charge of a four-horse team belonging to Mr. W. T. Downey, of Fairfax county. The horses became frightened at the approaching train, and Mr. Strader lost control of them. In the collision he was thrown from the wagon, and in his fall his head struck the vitrified brick roadway. Mr. Strader was 58 years old. He leaves a widow and children.

An inquest will be held by Dr. Moore, the coroner, at 8 o'clock tonight. The following jury has been summoned: H. D. Kirk, J. H. Fisher, K. W. Ogden, G. D. Hopkins, R. M. Graham and Harrie White.

It is probable that after viewing the body the jury will adjourn till a later date in order that a number of witnesses may be secured.

FREE KINDERGARTEN.

The monthly meeting of the directors of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten Association was held yesterday afternoon. The following contributions of $1 each were received: Miss Laura Kine, Dr. E. A. Gorman and Miss Florence Evans. The Free Kindergarten Association will hold its annual meeting on Friday, May 7, at 8 o'clock, at the Young People's Building, which Dr. Bull's church has most kindly placed at the disposal of the kindergarten for that evening. Miss Watkins, the director of the Washington kindergartens, is to give a talk which will be illustrated by the singing of kindergarten songs and finger-plays by thirty young ladies from the Normal Kindergarten training class of Washington. A delightful evening is expected and the public is most cordially invited to be present. No cards of admission are necessary.

DECLINE TO ACT.

Ministers of the gospel in Alexandria are often called upon by persons from other cities to perform nuptial ceremonies. It occasionally appears when questioned that one or the other of the parties seeking matrimonial alliance has been married before, and consequently the minister declines to act. The clergy of this city, when the would-be bride and groom are unknown to them, carefully investigate applicants for their services, and in this divorcee they decline to unite a couple when it is ascertained that one or the other has been divorced.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Cason presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: A white man, charged with fighting, was dismissed. Another man, charged with a similar offense, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear. Clinton Jones, a boy, charged with throwing grass upon a woman, was dismissed, as his mother had corrected him. Norman Willis, colored, charged with stealing an overcoat from Walter Elsey, colored, was sent to jail for four months.

FUNERALS.

The remains of the late Robert H. Massey, who died suddenly in Washington Monday, were brought to this city today, and the interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery this afternoon. The services were conducted by a Washington clergyman.

The funeral of the late Orlando Harris, who died in Washington Monday, took place this afternoon from Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment. Alexandria Council, Junior Order of Americans, of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral.

THE FISHERY.

About 60,000 herring arrived at Fish-town yesterday, and 30,000 were there this morning. They sold at $4 per thousand. There were no shad on the market. Large numbers of herring are being caught in the neighborhood of this city. The season, however, is nearing its close.

COMMITTEE MEETING.

An adjourned meeting of the executive committee which had charge of Home-Coming Week and last Friday's celebration will be held tonight at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. The reports of the various committees, it is expected, will be submitted at this meeting.

The only store where Regal shoes can be had outside of their agency, John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

AMUSEMENTS.

A crowded house greeted the presentation last night by the Johnson-Downey Stock Company of that old time, but popular drama, "The Curse of Ham." The audience in the Opera House was moved to tears many times as the sad scenes were depicted. But as good as was the presentation of this time-honored drama, the most thrilling play ever seen in this city will be that commencing tomorrow night and lasting three nights. Even the smallest child has heard of his dastardly murders. It is "Jack the Ripper," with the celebrated church scene, concluding with the hanging on regulation gallows—the most realistic ever seen on the stage. The reserved seats for this great drama will be 15 cents—on sale at Edgar Warfield's drug store. The requests for the repetition tonight of the drama presented last night have been so numerous that the management has determined to produce it for the last time. Other good features will also be on tonight.

Again last night the Surprise Theatre was filled to overflowing and it seems as if the people never tire of witnessing good performances, and they are first-class in every particular here. Tonight concludes the engagement of the vaudeville stars who greatly pleased the people Monday and Tuesday nights, and tomorrow night, Friday and Saturday nights there will be one of the best entertainments ever given here. Don't fail to see Baby Esmond, the cutest trick in vaudeville.

The Alexandria Amusement Company, the only talking and one of the best silent picture houses in this section, will throw on canvas an excellent set tonight which it will do one's heart good to see. Besides witnessing a good show every purchaser of a ticket has a chance of getting a handsome prize.

The progress being made and the possibilities of the institution were freely gone over, the greatest interest being shown in the work. Among the members of the board attending the meeting was Dr. Wm. M. Smith, of Alexandria.

SEINES "OUT OUT."

A dispatch from Fredericksburg says: Several of the big seines on the Potomac river, near this city, have been cut out after a most unprofitable season. The seines were cast earlier than usual owing to the mild winter, and fishing in February was very good. Since the first of April, however, all of the hauls have been exceedingly small.

History tells us that Sir Walter Raleigh was the discoverer of smoking tobacco, but it took Mr. Auth to find his own inimitable method of curing and smoking these delectable Auth Hams. A dispatch from Nairobi, British East Africa, says former President Roosevelt surprised and killed two more lions yesterday.

[COMMUNICATED.]

The attempt of people who are opposed to an able aspirant for the legislature to accuse him of insincerity in reference to his position in matters of vital interest to a great many in this community will not be taken seriously by any intelligent voter. It is the same old game of "peanut" politics resorted to by our forefathers, and used as a court of last resort. The candidate in question has so conducted himself in this city that he has won the esteem and confidence of all who know him, and no idle vapors of those who would like to dictate politically can cast a stain on his blameless escutcheon. He is fearless as a member of the fraternity he represents and his sterling worth will stand unharmed amid the wreck of matter and crush of worlds. Let's have a fair fight on the merits of the two men. It is generally believed that both candidates want this. But it appears that some ill-advised supporters of one of the candidates already seem to see the hand writing on the wall.

Shot by Jealous Husband.

Detroit, Mich., May 5.—Michael Barkhart was arrested early today and arraigned charged with the killing of Robert Barrows, who died this morning, as the result of the second morning shooting row Detroit has seen in a week. Barrows' wife left him three weeks ago. Yesterday, it is alleged, Barrows found her talking with Barkhart on the porch of a house where she worked as housekeeper, when Barrows shot him.
